SUBJECT: POLAND: UNGA WALKOUT REDLINES

REF: STATE 097566

Classified By: Political Counselor Dan Sainz for reasons 1.4 (b) and (d).

(C) On September 21, Polcouns urged Polish MFA officials to support the U.S. position that certain statements are unacceptable, and should prompt those in attendance at the UNGA general debate to walk out. In response to reftel points, MFA Deputy Director for UN Affairs Artur Klopotoski said he would convey the points to MFA leadership and his counterparts in New York. Klopotoski was uncertain what the ultimate GoP decision would be, but noted that Poland's seat will be filled for most of the general debate by lower level experts. As a result, Poland may not be able to match other countries' plans to have higher-level officials walk out in response to objectionable statements, leaving first secretaries in the seat.
